

Can HTTPS be used with the DynaView VMS Web Client?

Yes. It involves purchasing a server-side SSL certificate and configuring IIS.

The certificate is often verified by a 3rd party company and created specifically for the customer, so this is not something that can be provided by IPVideo Corporation as part of the turnkey solution.

For more detail on HTTPS Implementation :

<http://support.microsoft.com/kb/299875>